

Media: Ministry of Home Affairs
Date: Friday, 28 December 2018
Headline: Supporting Ex-Offenders and Their Families

PARTNERS IN REHABILITATION

ISCOS Bursary Awards 2018

Supporting Ex-offenders and Their Families

Some 315 beneficiaries received bursaries during the Industrial & Social Co-operative Society (ISCOS) Bursary Award Ceremony on 14 December.

As one of the founding members of the CARE (Community Action for the Rehabilitation of Ex-Offenders) Network, ISCOS supports ex-offenders and their families so that they can lead productive lives.

The number of bursaries awarded this year was a new high for ISCOS, which works with community partners and donors to disburse bursaries to beneficiaries who've progressed in their studies.

Two new awards were also introduced by ISCOS this year – the Outstanding Achievement Award and the Good Progress Award. The ceremony was graced by Guest-of-Honour Assoc Prof Muhammad Faishal Ibrahim, SPS for MSF and MOE.

Contributed by ISCOS

Text:

Supporting Ex-Offenders and Their Families

Some 315 beneficiaries received bursaries during the Industrial & Social Co-operative Society (ISCOS) Bursary Award Ceremony on 14 December.

As one of the founding members of the CARE (Community Action for the Rehabilitation of Ex-Offenders) Network, ISCOS supports ex-offenders and their families so that they can lead productive lives.

The number of bursaries awarded this year was a new high for ISCOS, which works with community partners and donors to disburse bursaries to beneficiaries who've progressed in their studies.

Two new awards were also introduced by ISCOS this year – the Outstanding Achievement Award and the Good Progress Award. The ceremony was graced by Guest-of-Honour Assoc Prof Muhammad Faishal Ibrahim, SPS for MSF and MOE.